

GREATEST SALE—STONE & THOMAS.

STONE & THOMAS.

Several days since we told you in the papers that this was to be the ever this store held. The thousands who were in the store yesterday, we think, will vouch for this assertion. Some items advertised were entirely sold out; other just as attractive to take their place this morning.

Greatest Sale

In the Silk Dept.

Prices that are only possible to be made by stores having a large outlet and paying spot cash.

This Morning.

IN THE COURTS.

Yesterday, in the circuit court, in the case of the Alexander Lumber Company, of Upshur county, vs. R. G. Dun and partners doing business as the mercantile agency of R. G. Dun & Co., in which the plaintiff sues for $50,000 damages caused by alleged uncalculated unfavorable financial rating, the defendant moved that the plaintiff furnish a statement of particulars, stating:

First—Names of every person through whom the plaintiff intends to prove the libel, including times, places, etc.

Second—Manner of such publication of libel.

Third—Names of persons and firms who have refused to have business relations with the plaintiff through the publication.

Fourth—Firms from whom the plaintiff would have purchased.

Fifth—Persons or firms who have refused loans to the plaintiff.

Sixth—Persons or firms who have refused to furnish the plaintiff other things.

The defendant moved that the court instruct the plaintiff to answer as above outlined. The hearing of the motion was continued to another day not yet set.

In the case of Mary Horan, administratrix of Michael Horan, vs. T. T. Hutchisson, W. H. Chapman, et al, plaintiff filed an affidavit showing the loss of certain original papers. Her authenticated declaration was thereupon admitted.

In the case of J. R. Mendel vs. Mary Mitchell, there was a verdict for the plaintiff in the sum of $326.96.

In the case of Elizabeth Turner's administratrix vs. W. H. Chapman and T. T. Hutchisson, the defendants filed respectively pleas of not guilty, in which the plaintiff joined issue. The defendants filed three special pleas to which the plaintiff objected; submitted.

Walfred G. Anderson was admitted to practice in this court.

B. F. Pritchard's administratrix vs. T. T. Hutchisson; an amended declaration was filed, returnable at July rules. The same action was taken in the case of B. F. Pritchard's administrators vs. T. T. Hutchisson et al, and in the case of Eugene Birch vs. T. T. Hutchisson et al.

CRIMINAL COURT.

In the criminal court, in the case of St. vs. Louis Meyer, the case was nolleed and the defendant discharged.

Court adjourned until Thursday.

THE NEW "BUSY BEE"

Restaurant will make its initial bow to the Public to-day.

The name VanKeuren and the business of furnishing and preparing good things for the public palate have been linked together in Wheeling for many years, and the public will no doubt learn with satisfaction that Mr. C. E. VanKeuren opens at noon to-day the new "Busy Bee" restaurant, in the Grand Opera House building, No. 55, Twelfth street, next door to the Western Union telegraph office, where he will be glad to receive the good meal loving public. The first meal to be served to-day is dinner, beginning at noon. The restaurant will be open day and night, and will not close the year around. Dainty lunches at all hours a specialty.

REUNION FINANCIERS

Will Meet This Afternoon to Arrange for the Canvass for Funds.

This afternoon at the office of Colonel Morris Horkheimer, the Army of West Virginia Reunion committee on finance will meet for the purpose of appointing sub-committees to aid in the canvass for funds to defray the expenses of the reunion. The canvass will probably begin in the course of the next two or three days and ought to be completed within a week or ten days. About $4,000 will be needed by the committee. From the encouragement already received it is anticipated the committee will meet with a hearty reception at the business houses.

MR. SEIBERT'S FUNERAL.

The funeral of the late Henry C. Seibert, whose tragic death on Sunday morning was chronicled in the Intelligencer, took place yesterday afternoon from the family home at Point Mills. The interment followed at Greenwood. A number of Wheeling friends of the family attended.

ST. JOSEPH'S EXERCISES.

The closing exercises of St. Joseph's academy kindergarten and minid departments will occur this evening at the Carroll Club auditorium. An elaborate programme has been prepared for the occasion, which will doubtless interest a large audience of friends of the school.

TO DECORATE GRAVES.

The Shriner Grays will observe Confederate memorial day next Saturday afternoon by decorating the graves of their dead in the local cemeteries. The Daughters of the Confederacy will join in the observance.

BOOKS of Poetry, History, Essays and Travel, suitable for Commencement and confirmation presents, at Stanton's Old City Book Store.

The Omaha Exposition of 1898

Bears the Centennial Exposition which occurred in Philadelphia in 1876 away out of sight and is next to the World's Fair at Chicago in importance to the whole country. All of the states in the Trans-Mississippi region are interested, and our eastern friends will enjoy a visit to Omaha during the continuance of the Exposition, from June to October, inclusive.

Buy your excursion tickets over the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway. An illustrated folder descriptive of the Exposition will be sent you on receipt of two-cent stamp for postage. Address John R. Pott, District Passenger Agent, Williamsport, Pa. 1-8

WE WILL TELL YOU

If your headaches come from weak eyes, also if glasses will relieve them. Do you have headaches? Do your eyes water, smart or burn? Does the print run together when reading? Do things appear double or mixed up? Have a trouble to rub the eyes? "What's wrong?" Any trouble of your eyes consult us. We make glasses at popular prices. Make a careful examination free of charge and rely on the judgment of our optician, not our patients' judgment or answers.

Consultation and examination free. PROP. A. SEIBERT, THE EYE SPECIALIST, Corner Main and Eleventh Streets.

THE HUB—CLOTHIERS AND FURNISHERS.

ONE OF THE Wonders.....

The Hub made suits are ready-to-wear wonders. They have developed possibility to the highest degree of perfection. While others have skimmed and squeezed worth for the sake of lowering the price, we've piled up goodness as thick as we could get it for the sake of your greater satisfaction as between worth and cheapness. Worth always wins—men are not blind—they look behind the glib announcements—they measure the extravagant claims with common sense, our greater selling speaks the disapproval of cheapness—and the recognition of our honest qualities at the lowest prices.

$10.00 Suits—Compare With Others $12.50.

Our Russian Blue Serge alone is enough to make this grade a famous one, but besides this famous serge we show Fancy Plaids and Checks and neat effects in light, dark and medium shades, elegant, Black, Blue and Mixed Clays in both sacks and cutaways.

$12.00 Suits—Compare With Others $15.00.

And let it be a careful comparison. We have more suits at $12.00 than a third of the others have at all prices, and they are made up especially for us by the best of tailors. Many of them are extra values for us even.

$15.00 Suits—Compare With Others $20.00.

There is more fineness here in this grade than you think. $15.00 is a good price, and it pays for lots of elegance and it gets it. Do you know that such suits made to order would cost $30.00?

Other grades in All Wool Suits $5.00 and $7.50. Proofs in every grade from first to last.
